
Grey Wolves In YellowStone

class="NavLink"

By Eddie M Loeza

When was YellowStone National Park Established?

It was established by the U.S Congress and signed into law by the 18th President Ulysses S Grant on March 1, 1872 and is Known as the world's first national park.

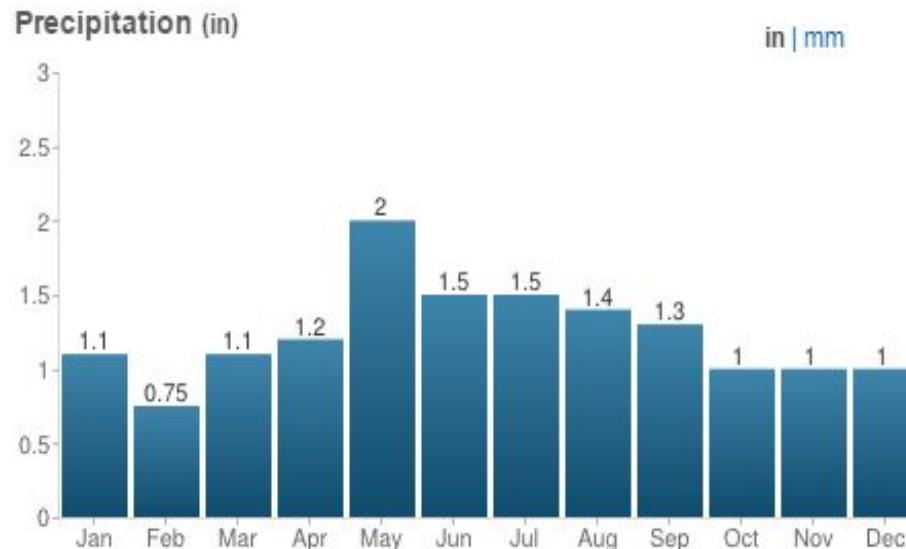

Where and What Biome is YellowStone?

YellowStone Nat. Park is located in the West of the United States its spans 3,472 square miles(8,987). It is divided into 3 States inside the state of Wyoming(96%),Montana(3%), and in Idaho(1%).

The parks biome is Taiga. This Biome is a coniferous forest filled with pine cones,firs,spruces,hemlock,larches,mosses and lichens. It is also known as the alpine Biome.

YellowStone has Glacial features, hot springs, a volcano, and a Huge waterfalls named upper and lower yellowStone Falls.

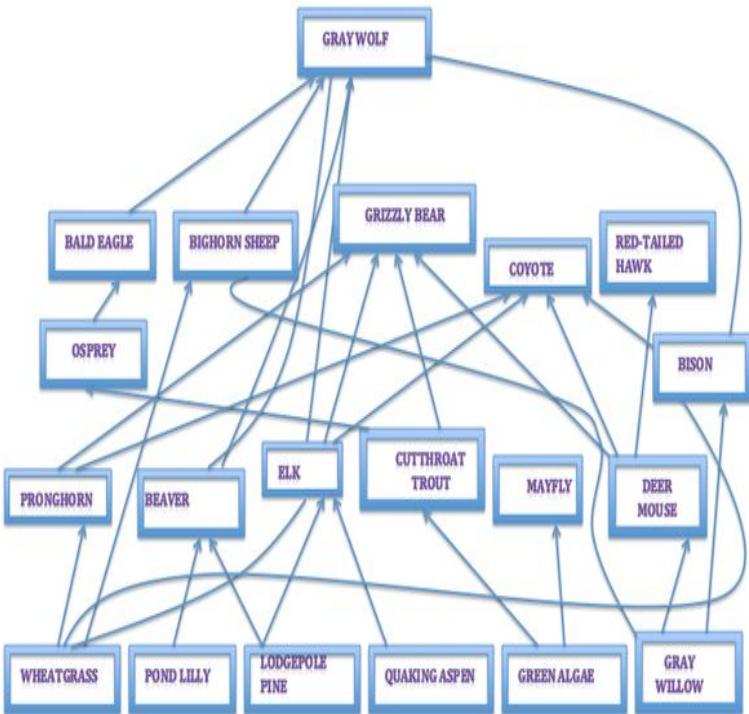

YellowStone's Weather:

Where Do Gray Wolves live? And Population:

Gray Wolves live in Canada and a little bit of Greenland and In the U.S it lives in Alaska and a small percentage in western States. They Pretty Much Live in Asia and Europe. There is Estimated to be about 15,000 Gray Wolves living in the U.S. Canada has 40,000. Europe there are 30,000. Asia has 60,000. Worldwide is estimated to be 150,000 Gray Wolves in the world.

YellowStone's Food Web:

Gray Wolf is in the top of this food web in YellowStone and is known to live in western areas.

Green Algae is one of the bottom organisms and is eaten by Mayfly larvae.

Quaking Aspen is a tree that is native to cooler areas and is eaten by Elk.

Beavers are mostly nocturnal and is a rodent and are known for making dams and canals and eats pond Lily.

Bald Eagle Is known as the National Bird in America and eats Osprey in YellowStone.

The Grizzly Bear is also in the top of the food web and can Hibernate for 5-7 months in a year.

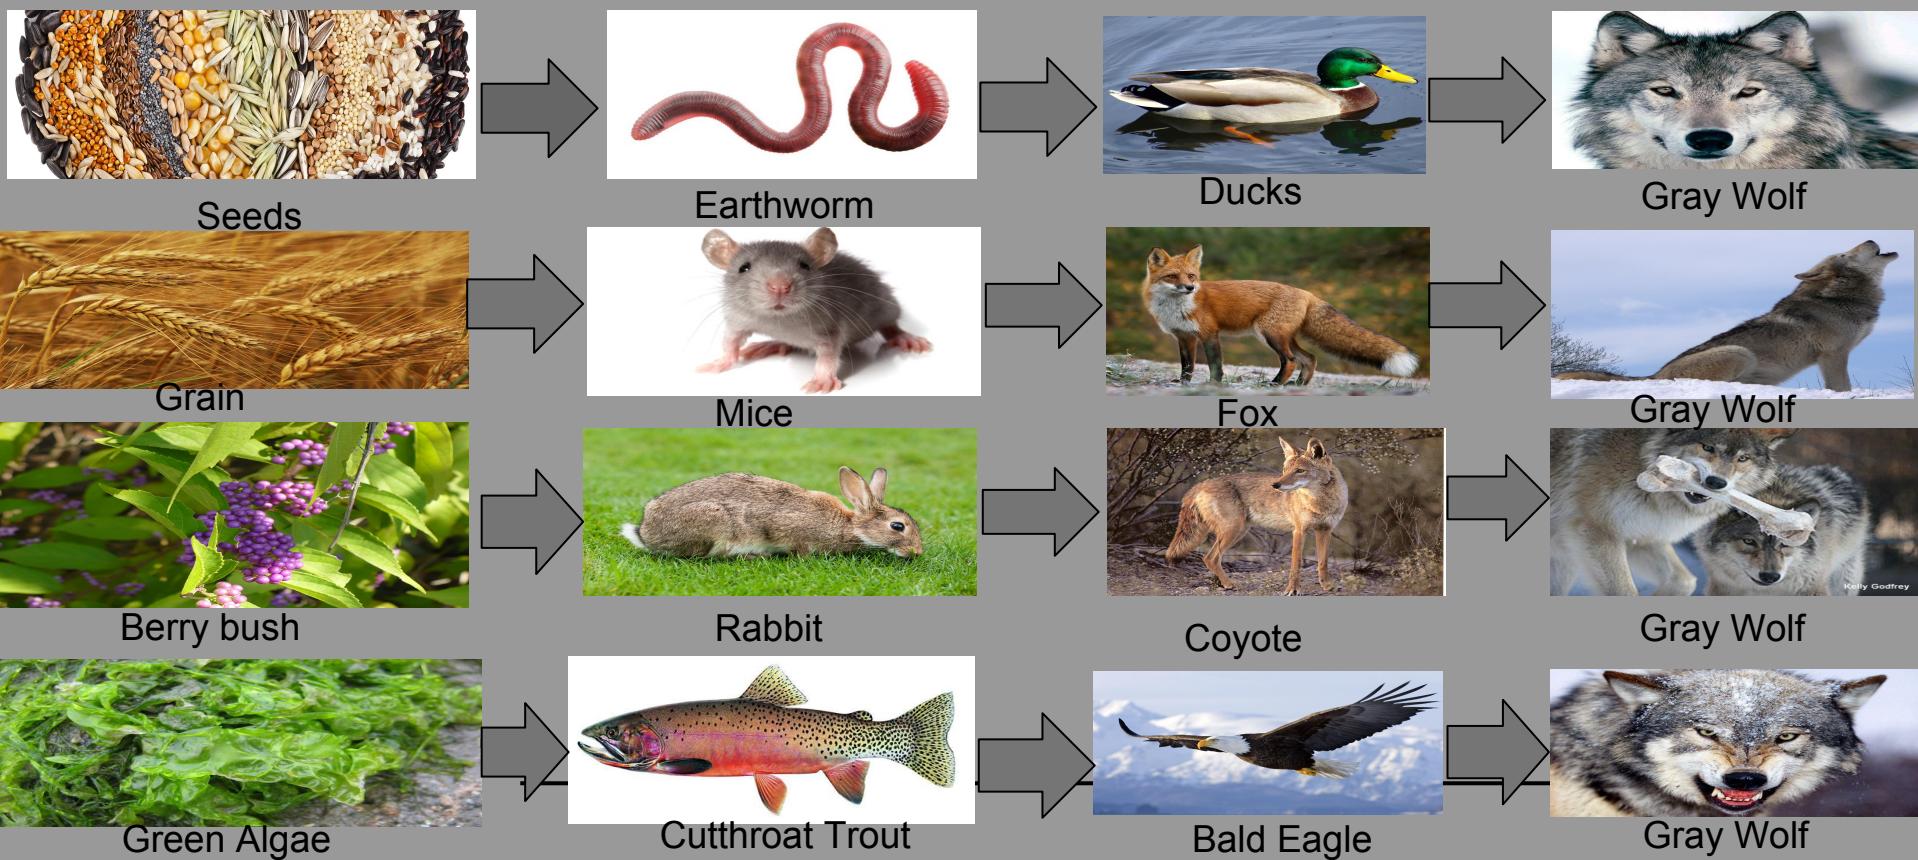

Big Horned Sheep is a native species and their horns can weigh about 30lb.

Red Tailed hawk It is known as the chicken Hawk even tho it rarely feeds on chicken.

Cutthroat trout it is related to Salmonidae native to cold areas, live in mountains & feeds on algae.

Elk is one of the largest organism in North America and the species being Cervidae.

Gray Wolf Trophic Levels:

Webliography:

Gray Wolf location map: <http://www.animalfactguide.com/animal-facts/gray-wolf/>

YellowStone's Food Web: <http://visityellowstonenationalparkyall.weebly.com/yellowstones-wildlife.html>

YellowStone's Biome Facts:

<https://sites.google.com/a/dysartstudents.org/yellowstone-national-park-project/biomes>

YellowStone Established: <http://www.history.com/this-day-in-history/yellowstone-park-established>

Gray Wolf Trophic Level:

http://www.ecologyedu.com/ecology education resources/gray wolf reintroduction/energy flow pg 4.html

Weather: http://travel.usnews.com/Yellowstone National Park WY/When To Visit/

Attractions:

https://www.tripadvisor.com/Attractions-g60999-Activities-Yellowstone National Park Wyoming.html
